

Bayshore Beach Club Board of Directors Resolution to Adopt ORS 105.668 for Bayshore Beach Club, Inc.

The Bayshore Beach Club, Inc. (BBC) Board of Directors hereby adopts ORS 105.668 on this day, April 18, 2026. ORS 105.668 provides immunity from negligence claims for personal injury or property damage arising from the public’s use of BBC’s trails or structures in public easements or unimproved rights of way, including those providing access to beaches. Examples of Bayshore’s trails (but not exhaustive) include the multiple marked beach accesses accessible from Bayshore (e.g., 66C, 67, 67A, 67B, 67C, and 67D), unmarked accesses to the beach accessible from Bayshore, as well as other pathways that lead to Mokmak Lake, the pathway over the canal, pathways in Bayshore’s parks, and pathways that are part of Bayshore’s parking lots. This resolution also applies to pathways and structures developed beyond the date of the resolution.

Resolution adopted unanimously by the BBC Board of Directors on April 18, 2026 at the Board of Directors meeting (quorum obtained).
